VIDEOMARKETING
with penetrative power

I will walk the path to greater success with you, through accurate promotional videos.

Sven Steger, business owner, Life Of Media

PROMOTIONAL VIDEOS THAT WORK

Life Of Media creates videos that touch the hearts of their target group.

Regardless of whether it is an image film, an explanatory video or a complex animation of your new product or building. We know what is necessary and what is important.

Long texts or static images do not appeal to anyone nowadays, so it is even more important to get your message across using video content. It is needless having a good product if your target audience does not understand your offer quickly enough.

A video from Life Of Media shows your customer that you are the best provider in their field and leads to more business, sales and success.

FOR US THE RESULT MATTERS

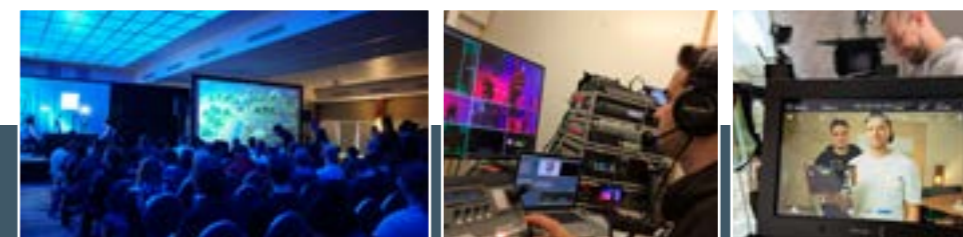

More reach - more customers.

We turn your videos into real sales argument while offering value for money. We provide you with full service from its conception to implementation.

Most production companies settle for expensive equipment and high prices for promotional videos - we focus on the best result for you and your business.

We create videos with impeccable craftsmanship, with which you get to achieve a good conversion rate. The latter can be further strengthened by targeted social ads on Facebook, Instagram, Google & Co.

Life Of Media has accordingly optimized its processes and workflows and is your competent partner in the field of „Business Videos“.

Life Of Media is a video production company based in the west of Nuremberg, which was launched in 2019 by video creator Sven Büttner. In the meantime, Life Of Media has more than 10 employees and has realized projects in over 30 countries.
